SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. The Polish Red Cross in Rio de Janeiro will soon undergo a significant reorganization during the course of which Marian Ignacy Luksik will probably be dismissed from his position as Delegate. The Polish Legation has allegedly offered Luksik's post to Maurycy Gruber, well-known Polish Communist in Rio, but the latter has refused to accept the designation.
2. In official Polish circles Luksik is considered an opportunist who is not in line with the social changes taking place in Poland. Furthermore, there is evidence that Eusebio Dworkin, First Secretary of the Polish Legation, holds him in disfavor.
